1-17	§102(e) Anticipation	• Pirolli et al. (U.S. Patent No. 5,895,470).

Applicant responds by providing discussion showing enablement for claims 7 and 15, and by distinguishing the Pirolli reference from the present invention.

35 U.S.C. §112, First Paragraph, Claims 7, 15 Claim 1

1. The written description enables claim language relating to the distance measure being inversely related to the measure of similarity because it teaches that a choice of functions may be used for this distance determination, and an inverse function (1/x) is a function well known in the art.
